Vlatka Hlupic is Professor of Business and Management at the University of Westminster, a former Adjunct Faculty at London Business School, a consultant for Saïd Business School and a global faculty member of FT/IE Corporate Learning Alliance.

As one of the World's Top 10 Most Influential Leadership Thinkers she is also a founder and Chief Executive Officer of The Management Shift Consulting Ltd and the Drucker Society London. She received a PhD in Information Systems at the London School of Economics, a BSc (Hon) in Economics and an MSc in Information Systems from the University of Zagreb.

Vlatka is the winner of the CMI Management Articles of the Year Award 2015 and the winner of the Axiom Business Books Award (silver medal in the "Leadership" category). She has also been voted one of the Most Influential HR Thinkers in the world in 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018 (9th in the world) and was nominated for the Thinkers50 list and "Ideas to practice" Award. Her book has been shortlisted for the CMI Management Book of the Year Award and it has been nominated for the FT & McKinsey Business Book of the Year Award.

Her new book 'Humane Capital: How to Create a Management Shift to Transform Performance and Profit' was published by Bloomsbury Publishing in 2018.

As a renowned professional keynote speaker, she regularly presents at major business events worldwide, including events at the Houses of Parliament, European Commission, Home Office, the Economist and Financial Times. She has published more than 200 academic articles, including the award-winning 'To be a Better Leader, Give up Authority', Harvard Business Review, December 2009.

Vlatka is also a management consultant and Board adviser, helping organisations worldwide substantially to improve performance, engagement, innovation and profit. She has advised major international organizations including the House of Commons, GlaxoSmithKline, BP, The National Health Service, Learndirect, Brand Velocity USA, the Drucker Institute USA, the Croatian Government and the Hungarian National Bank.

For her consulting engagements, Vlatka uses her research-based and empirically validated tools described in 'The Management Shift' book, helping leaders and organisations worldwide to shift to a new level of working and success.
